CLOCK HOURS CALCULATIONS - USE THIS FORM TO SUMMARIZE TRANSCRIPT INFORMATION

Unless otherwise specified in course syllabi or other university documentation, ACSLPA will consider that each semester hour of recognized credit corresponds to 15 hours of lecture for theory based, "instructor-led" courses, which may include lectures, tutorials, seminars or workshops.

33% of "student-led" hours can be counted toward the required totals. These may include laboratory hours, problem-based learning hours, self-directed study hours, or guided learning hours.

Courses may be listed in more than one topic area, reflecting the actual number of hours applicable to each particular topic area. Hours listed under a particular topic area may not be included again in another topic area.
