

2022 Continuing Competence Program Risks and Supports

As part of its Continuing Competence Program, ACSLPA collects data on the risks and supports to practice as reported by regulated members completing the program. This data provides information on the challenges faced by the profession, as well as resources available to regulated members.

Risks to Competence as Reported by Regulated Members (2022)

Supports to Competence as Reported by Regulated Members (2022)

